A beautiful "Spode" (England) plate for hors d'oeuvres and/or finger desserts... holding Dave Regester's gift to all Mid-Lifers and beyond (women included!) MID-LIFE IN YOUR FACE, MAN! Published in 1988, Dave wrote this book, containing only questions, in response to the countless men he counseled in over 30 years in his private practice of psychology. Ironically, he learned about many questions mid-life men struggle with, from their wives and lovers. He also emphasized that it was important to find the RIGHT questions, the one's that fit for the individual man in order to find meaningful answers. Given that mid-life men do discover the "right" questions, a "mid-life juncture becomes less of a crisis and more of a phase of creating and growing a new sense of self. ENJOY!
